

Prince George Woodturners Guild Meeting Agenda
September 27, 2018

Wood Draw

A successful wood draw was held, thanks Bob

Show and Tell

Members displayed a variety of different pieces that they had turned in the last month. Thank you Martin and Art.

Financial Report – Art

Our current bank balance is $2413.38 Requests for reimbursements, cheques etc. please see Art before the end of the meeting.

Sandpaper Sales – Art

Those wishing to purchase sandpaper please see Art or call Art at home. Cost of the sandpaper is 5.25 for 5 sheets

Memorial Tree

The memorial tree for Ron has been planted on Connaught Hill Park. It is a maple tree.

Farmers Market

Still going strong, Art is doing very well in selling his products at the weekly Farmers Market.

Upcoming Events

Artisans of the North – UNBC – Oct 27, and 28th. Set up on Friday Oct 26th. We will discuss more at October's meeting.

Studio Faire

Artisan Fair – Two Rivers Gallery – November 2, 3, and 4th. We have the same space as last year. Set up is November 1st. George has agreed to organize the manning of the ticket booth.

Confluences (Association of Northwest Weavers Guild conference 2019 – June 12–15th

Not for Profit Follow Up

Our name is available to form a member not for profit society. We will set up the not for profit at the AGM in January.

Safety tips and Stories

Ken warned about using the air hose to clean off wood chips near ones ears.

Coffee Time:

Exemplary butter tarts and chocolate cupcakes from Rory – great job!

Business from the floor

A local organic farmer has expressed interest in wood shavings, he will be asked to attend a future meeting to arrange pick up.

Demo Requests and offers – Tim

Art will demonstrate how to turn a coffee scoop at October's meeting

Tonight's Presentation

Ian Hartley from UNBC gave a presentation on "What type of wood would that be". Thank you Ian.